Dear Mr. Hashim:

Per our recent discussion in the Republic of Equatorial Guinea, this letter memorializes the agreement of Farragut Advisors (E.G.) L.L.C. ("Farragut") to represent the government of the Republic of Equatorial Guinea (the "Government") with respect to the provision of services related to public relations, government relations and advocacy before the United States Congress, the Executive Branch of the United States Government and other interested parties. Among other objectives, the contracted services will aim to improve the country's public image and reputation in the United States and to develop and implement public relations and communications strategies to assist the Government in communicating its message to the world community.

In exchange for providing the Government with the services previously agreed, Farragut will receive fifty-thousand dollars ($50,000) per month from the Government.

This letter constitutes the entire agreement between Farragut and the Government with respect to the described services and supersedes any and all prior or contemporaneous arrangements, understandings and agreements, written or oral, between them relating to the subject matter hereof.
